

Pulcinella Sailing Ship

Pulcinella is an old wooden boat of 1927 on which you can live again for a day the excitement of ancient explorers, looking for new lands to conquer.

The tour includes a navigation between the main islands and the break, with landing on the Cavaliere beach in Budelli and then in Spargi island. The onboard service is provided by the staff who will assist you throughout the day.

Lunch, based on of Sardinian typical selected products will be served on board with a good wine from the sweet hills of Gallura. The tour is conducted with the aid of the engine and the use of sails during return. It is also carried out a variation of the route described above, with destination Isola Piana in Corsica.BOAT INFORMATION
